Objective

Hi, i am Aaditya Kashyap, currently I am student pursuing a career in design, which I have always found intriguing, I am also a passionate design student with foundation in user-centered design principles seeking opportunity to contribute creative thinking and growing technical abilities to a collaborative team environment.

Experience

March 2025 - May 2025

UI/UX Design Intern @ The Biohackers co.

As a UI/UX Design Intern at a biohacking startup focused on optimizing human performance and wellness, I was responsible for crafting intuitive, science-driven digital experiences that aligned with both user needs and the company's vision of bio-optimization. I have also managed the social media account of the startup as well!

January 2025 - February 2025

UI/UX Design Intern @ Digital Dose

As a UI/UX Design Intern at Digital Dose, I contributed to the agency's diverse design projects, assisting in the creation of engaging digital experiences for various clients across industries. Working closely with senior designers and developers, I gained hands-on experience in both the user interface (UI) and user experience (UX) design processes.

Education

2024-2028 - Greater Noida

Galgotias University
Bachelors in Design in Graphic, Web and Advertising Design

My coursework combines creativity with technical skills, focusing on how design influences user behavior and brand perception across various platforms.

2016-2024 - Gurugram

Summer Fields School
High School

Completed high school with active involvement in the Computer Society and served as President of the Model United Nations (MUN) club, leading teams in tech and diplomacy events.
